DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1, 2, 4, 6-9, 11-17, and 19-28 are pending. Applicant's arguments and amendments filed 3/20/06 have been entered.

Applicant's election of Group I in the reply filed on 3/20/06 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).

Claims 24-28 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 3/20/06.

Objections/Rejections Withdrawn

The following objections/rejections set forth in the Office action mailed 12/20/05 have been withdrawn:

The rejection of claims 1-23 under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention, has been withdrawn.

The rejection of claims 1-3, 5-9, 10, and 12-14 under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Heffner et al (US 5,437,686) has been withdrawn.

The rejection of claims 1-10 and 12-19 under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by King (US 4,485,028) has been withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 1, 2, 4, 6, 7, 15-17, and 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Lee et al (US 5,366,593).

Lee et al teach chemical pulp that contains reactants able to generate a dioxirane within the pulp. The oxidation process is made up of the following steps: The reactants comprise a carbonyl compound such as acetone and an oxygen donor such as monoperoxysulfate. The reaction is carried out at a pH of 6.5 to 8 which is achieved by the addition sodium bicarbonate. See column 4, line 20 to column 5, line 40. The caustic compounds may be used in amounts from 1 to 5% by weight. Specifically, Lee et al teach an example in which dioxirane was generated using 2.5% active oxygen and 32% acetone. The composition was buffered using sodium hydroxide. See column 15, lines 45-60. Lee et al disclose the claimed invention with sufficient specificity to constitute anticipation.

Accordingly, the teachings of Lee et al anticipate the material limitations of the instant claims.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1, 2, 4, 6-9, 11-17, and 19-23 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 8-27 and 34-40 of copending Application No. 10/693194. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because claims 8-27 and 34-40 of 10/693194 encompass the material limitations of the instant claims.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art, at the time the invention was made, to formulate a composition containing a monopersulfate compound, a carbonate-type buffer, ketone, and the other requisite components of the composition in the specific proportions as recited by the instant claims, with a reasonable expectation of success, because claims 8-27 and 34-40 suggest a composition containing a monopersulfate compound, a carbonate-type buffer, ketone, and the other requisite components of the composition in the specific proportions as recited by the instant claims. Note that, a dioxirane compound as recited by claims 8-27 and 34-40 of 10/693194 would suggest a composition containing a persulfate and ketone such as acetone since dioxiranes form from combining a persulfate and ketone such as acetone.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Response to Arguments

With respect to Lee et al, Applicant states that Lee does not disclose the specific components of the instant claims within the specific ranges as recited by the instant claims. In response, note that, upon further consideration, the Examiner asserts that Lee et al disclose the claimed invention, including the ranges of components, with sufficient specificity to constitute anticipation.
